PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons:

---

The probation officer believes the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

1. Do Not Unlawfully Use Controlled Substance - You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court, not to exceed 104 tests annually.

Mylott failed to report for scheduled drug testing on the following dates:

- a) October 23, 2021
- b) March 29, 2022

- h) June 20, 2022
- i) June 25, 2022

Mylott tested positive for marijuana on the following dates:

- j) April 6, 2022
- k) April 20, 2022
- l) April 29, 2022
- m) May 11, 2022

3. Must Answer Truthfully - You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.

- a) As noted in allegation # 1, Mylott tested positive for marijuana on numerous occasions. Laboratory tests confirmed Mylott was positive for all the noted tests and an interpretation letter later confirmed he reused marijuana prior to his tests on April 20, 2022, May 18, 2022 and May 25, 2022 despite his claims. Based upon all this evidence it is clear that Mylott has not been truthful about his marijuana use.

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR SUMMONS
June 28, 2022

By way of case history, on August 20, 2020 Mylott was sentenced to five (5) years' probation for committing the offense of Distribution of a Controlled Substance – Methamphetamine; thus, that same date he commenced his first term of supervised release.

On August 31, 2021, he appeared before the Court for a revocation hearing and admitted to failing to report for scheduled drug testing on numerous occasions, failing to submit monthly supervision reports, leaving the district without permission, and for failing to be truthful. The Court sentenced Mylott to four (4) months custody followed by thirty-six (36) months of supervised release. On October 1, 2021, Mylott began his second term of supervised release.

Mylott began his second term of supervised with a good start, obtaining a stable residence and good employment quickly. From December 2021 until April 2022, Mylott's biggest struggle was showing up for his scheduled treatment sessions and as noted above, as he missed eight (8) sessions. Both probation and the counseling agency have worked diligently to help Mylott reengage in treatment; however, he did not make it a priority.

As to his drug testing issues, it began with his first positive test for marijuana on April 6, 2022. Mylott admitted to smoking marijuana on April 1, 2022 but denied any marijuana use on April 20, 2022. An interpretation letter was requested which showed that he used prior to his test on April 20, 2022. On April 29, 2022 he tested positive for marijuana and admitted smoking marijuana a couple days prior to this date. He again tested positive for marijuana on May 11, 2022 and admitted to smoking marijuana on May 2, 2022.

Mylott tested positive for marijuana again on May 18, 2022 and May 25, 2022. He denied using prior to each of these tests. The aforementioned interpretation letter confirmed that he did reuse marijuana prior to each of these tests. He then tested positive on June 7, 2022 and June 10, 2022; he admitted using marijuana on June 9, 2022. His last two positive drug tests were on June 22, 2022, and June 27, 2022. An additional interpretation letter will be requested for all positives drug tests in June 2022 to determine whether or not they are new or residual use. This report will be made available prior to the final revocation hearing.

The probation office has worked with Mylott in an attempt for him to gain compliance. He continues to use marijuana and refuses to take responsibility for his continued use. It is respectfully recommended a Summons be issued so that Mylott may appear before the Court so these violations can be addressed.

CASE NUMBER: 2:19-cr-00326-APG-NJK

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
